Media pack 2026

Grafikmagazin is the specialist magazine for communication design, aimed primarily at professional graphic designers, creative agencies and design students. As well as ideas, inspiration and design innovations, Grafikmagazin also features the kind of practical information and background designers need for success.

The magazine explores in six issues per year exciting portfolios and design projects that offer top-quality creative solutions. Typography plays an important part of each issue, so, too, in-depth topic sections on, for example, setting up a design studio, or on aspects of sustainability. In the »Design & Research« section we look at new design approaches, experimental formats and design theory, as well as the work of emerging design talents.

As a print edition and online, and with a range of interesting additional offers, Grafikmagazin is aiming to be a reliable and valuable partner to our readers, presenting them with professional journalism and first-class design.

It's the medium that makes the difference. Including for your message!

Test it for yourself – use Grafikmagazin as a platform for attracting attention to your products and company.

Grafikmagazin is a perfect platform for you to reach out intelligently and successfully to a top-flight audience of professional creatives.

We present every two months the best in contemporary graphic design, illustration, photo design, online design, corporate design, advertising and typography.

Every issue the Grafik+ section takes a close look at a different field of design. With its focus on individual themes, e.g. corporate communication, typography, information design, poster design etc., Grafikmagazin is a treasure chest of ideas and inspiration, a valuable and highly collectible resource.

Photographic projects also have a place in Grafikmagazin – given special treatment on art paper.

Another change of paper ushers in the section on Production & Publishing, a 16-page feature reporting in detail on remarkable print projects, and providing the readers with a wealth of information on choice of paper, print and finishing options and production.

In the Design & Research section we look at new design approaches, experimental formats and design theory, as well as the work of emerging design talents.

Personalised page 3 for your customers.

Are you looking for something special to surprise your customers with? How about a personalised issue of Grafikmagazin? Here's how it works: We add an extra page to Grafikmagazin, bound into the magazine before the editorial, and your photos and personalised letter to your customers appear in our layout on that page. The back of that page is available for your own full-page advert. After the magazines have been printed, we send you a package containing the number of issues you ordered, and you can then give these personalised Grafikmagazin magazines to your customers. Alternatively, for a very reasonable fee, we can send them direct to your customers on your behalf.

Price for personalisation of 50 magazines:
€378 (Complete price: €628 including the individual issues)
